Teleflex Stockholders Elect Four Members to the Board of Directors

April 29, 2005

LIMERICK, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--April 29, 2005--Teleflex Incorporated (NYSE:TFX) announced today that George Babich, Jr., and Benson F. Smith were elected to Teleflex's Board of Directors at the company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Mr. Babich is retired from The Pep Boys -- Manny, Moe & Jack, a full service automotive retail and service chain, where he served as president. Mr. Smith is chief executive officer of BFS & Associates, LLC, a company specializing in strategic planning and venture investing. He was formerly president and chief operating officer, C.R. Bard, Inc., a medical technologies company.

Also, re-elected to the Board were Chairman Lennox K. Black and William R. Cook. Mr. Black, who has served as chairman since 1983, is the former chief executive officer of Teleflex. Mr. Cook, who has been a member of the Teleflex board since 1998, is the former president and chief executive officer of Severn Trent Services, Inc., a water and waste utility company. All four will serve three-year terms.

James W. Stratton, a Director since 1993, retired as a member of the Teleflex board at the close of the stockholder meeting. Mr. Stratton was recognized at the meeting for his years of service to the company.

The meeting included a brief presentation by Jeffrey P. Black, president and CEO of Teleflex. An audio webcast of the Teleflex Annual Meeting of Stockholders is available at the company's website www.teleflex.com.

Teleflex Incorporated (NYSE:TFX) is a diversified company with annual revenues of $2.4 billion. Teleflex designs, manufactures and distributes quality engineered products and services for the aerospace, automotive, marine, industrial and medical markets worldwide. Headquartered in Limerick, Pennsylvania, with operations in 26 countries, Teleflex employs more than 20,000 people worldwide who focus on providing innovative solutions for customers.

CONTACT: Teleflex Incorporated
Julie McDowell
Vice President
Corporate Communications
610-948-2836

SOURCE: Teleflex Incorporated