ⁱ The term "Corporate" includes Southern Company and its subsidiaries.

ⁱⁱ In 2022, Southern Company Gas, Georgia Power Company, and Mississippi Power Company contributed—through company-funded PACs—to the state and local candidates, parties and committees in Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Virginia listed in this section. Nicor Gas, a subsidiary of Southern Company Gas, contributed to Illinois state and local candidates through Nicor's Illinois Political Contributions Committee.

The amount listed is the estimated value of an in-kind donation of tickets to the Atlanta Braves and catering.

^{iv} Includes trade associations and other tax-exempt organizations who engage in federal or state lobbying (i) to which Southern Company or its subsidiaries paid dues of $50,000 or more during the applicable year and (ii) which notified Southern Company or its subsidiaries of the portion used by that organization for expenditures or contributions that if made directly by Southern Company or its subsidiaries would not be deductible under section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code.

^v Southern Company and its subsidiaries are also members of trade groups, associations, and coalitions that do not qualify for disclosure in this report because they do not engage in federal or state lobbying and/or they receive dues from us in an amount less than $50,000. To the extent these groups, associations, and coalitions are likely to influence climate-related public policy, they are disclosed in Section C12.3c of our annual CDP response which can be found here.

^{vi} The amounts listed in this column are based upon information requested and received by Southern Company or its subsidiaries. Reported amounts do not include amounts for which the trade association directly pays tax on the portion that is not deductible under section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code.

^{vii} EEI transfers a portion of the Company's dues to other trade groups who, in turn, use a portion of those transferred dues in their lobbying efforts. In 2022, EEI transferred a portion of the Company's dues to the Utility Solid Waste Activities Group (USWAG) and $6,458.07 of those transferred dues were used for lobbying. EEI also transferred a portion of the Company's dues to the Energy & Wildlife Action Coalition (EWAC) and $4,988.51 of those transferred dues were used for lobbying.

ⁱ The term “Corporate” includes Southern Company and its subsidiaries.

ⁱⁱ Includes contributions to 501(c)(4) tax-exempt organizations which may utilize some funds for political purposes.

ⁱⁱⁱ Amount includes $15,000 contribution to Georgia Can’t Wait for Freight Education Campaign shown in the Non-Candidate Ballot Initiatives section.

^{iv} In 2021, Southern Company Gas contributed—through company-funded PACs—to the state and local candidates, parties and committees in Georgia, Tennessee, and Virginia listed in this section. Its subsidiary, Nicor Gas, contributed to Illinois state and local candidates through Nicor’s Illinois Political Contributions Committee.

This report does not include contributions to state and local candidates, parties and committees which are made by employee-funded PACs at Southern Company and its subsidiaries. Those contributions and expenditures are publicly available online through the states in which they are made.

^v Includes trade associations and other tax-exempt organizations who engage in federal or state lobbying (i) to which Southern Company or its subsidiaries paid dues of $50,000 or more during the applicable year and (ii) which notified Southern Company or its subsidiaries of the portion used by that organization for expenditures or contributions that if made directly by Southern Company or its subsidiaries would not be deductible under Section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Southern Company and its subsidiaries are also members of trade groups, associations, and coalitions that do not qualify for disclosure in this report because they do not engage in federal or state lobbying and/or they receive dues from us in an amount less than $50,000. To the extent these groups, associations, and coalitions are likely to influence climate-related public policy, they are disclosed in Section C12.3c of our annual CDP response which can be found here.

^{vi} The amounts listed in this column are based upon information requested and received by Southern Company or its subsidiaries. Reported amounts do not include amounts for which the trade association directly pays tax on the portion that is not deductible under Section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code.

^{vii} Edison Electric Institute (EEI) transfers a portion of the Company’s dues to other trade groups who, in turn, use a portion of those transferred dues in their lobbying efforts. In 2021, EEI transferred a portion of the Company’s dues to the Utility Solid Waste Activities Group and $1,328 of those transferred dues were used for lobbying. EEI also transferred a portion of the Company’s dues to the Energy & Wildlife Action Coalition and $610 of those transferred dues were used for lobbying.
