

THE UNION BANK COMPANY ANNOUNCES BOARD DIRECTOR APPOINTMENT

COLUMBUS GROVE, Ohio, February 18, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) – United Bancshares, Inc. (OTCQX: UBOH)

Columbus Grove, OH – John P. Miller was appointed as a Board Member of The Union Bank Company (“Bank”) board effective February 1, 2025, by the Bank’s parent company’s Board of Directors, United Bancshares, Inc.

“I am grateful to have the opportunity to serve with John again at the Bank”, said Brian D. Young, Chairman, President and CEO of The Union Bank Company. “John’s respect for others, credit acumen, institutional knowledge, community engagement, and kindness will serve our Shareholders, Clients, and Team Members well. As a result, he will make an immediate positive impact on the Bank”.

Mr. Miller recently retired in 2023 from The Union Bank Company after 22 years of service. His total banking experience spans over 40 years in numerous roles to include Credit Analyst, Branch Manager, Commercial Lender, and Chief Lending Officer. He holds a Bachelor of Finance from the University of Toledo, a master’s degree in business from Ashland University and attended the Graduate School of Banking from University of Wisconsin. Mr. Miller is also a current committee member of St. Johns’ High School Foundation, a member of the finance committee of Shawnee Country Club and is a past committee member of the St. Rita’s Foundation.

“I feel blessed to become part of Union Bank’s Board of Directors and to help contribute to their future success,” said Mr. Miller.

John and his wife Lynn have been married for 41 years and reside in Delphos, Ohio. They have 3 daughters and 10, soon to be 11, grandchildren.
