

Teleflex Enters Into Separate Privately Negotiated Agreements with Certain of its Convertible Note Holders

December 15, 2016

WAYNE, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 15, 2016-- Teleflex Incorporated (NYSE:TFX) announced today that it has entered into separate, privately negotiated agreements with certain of the holders of its 3.875% convertible senior subordinated notes due 2017 (the "Notes"). Teleflex has agreed to exchange approximately $91.7 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes for cash in an amount equal to $1,000 per $1,000 principal amount of Notes, a number of shares of Teleflex common stock equal to the amount of the conversion value in excess of the principal amount calculated over an averaging period, inducement payments to be paid in shares of Teleflex common stock and cash in an amount equal to accrued and unpaid interest. Teleflex intends to fund the principal amount of the exchange consideration through borrowings under its revolving credit agreement. Following the exchanges, which are expected to close on or about January 5, 2017, subject to customary closing conditions, we will have exchanged or converted approximately $355.7 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes to date and will have approximately $44.3 million of Notes outstanding following the completion of these exchanges and conversions.

In connection with the contemplated exchange of the Notes, Teleflex has also entered into agreements with dealers party to certain convertible note hedge transactions related to the Notes to unwind a corresponding portion of such convertible note hedge transactions. Teleflex has also entered into agreements with such dealer counterparties to unwind certain warrant transactions.

In connection with these exchanges, the issuance of the shares of Teleflex common stock upon the consummation of these exchanges, and the unwinding by the dealer counterparties of their hedges of the convertible note hedge transactions and warrant transactions, Teleflex expects the various exchange agreement counterparties and the dealer counterparties in aggregate to purchase Teleflex common stock during the averaging period in open market transactions and/or privately negotiated transactions. These expected activities could, subject to any market or other conditions, increase or prevent a decrease in the market price of Teleflex common stock.

The shares of Teleflex common stock issuable upon exchange have not been registered under the Securities Act or any U.S. state securities laws or other jurisdiction.

This press release does not constitute an offer to buy or sell or the solicitation of an offer to sell or buy Notes or shares of Teleflex common stock in any jurisdiction in which such an offer, purchase or sale would be unlawful.
