

Teleflex Publishes Inaugural Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Report

March 26, 2019

The report highlights how employees are driving the company mission into their communities, what the company and employees are doing to help protect the environment and how the company is achieving high standards for business progress

WAYNE, Pa., March 26, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Teleflex Incorporated (NYSE: TFX), a leading global provider of medical technologies for critical care and surgery, has announced the publication of its inaugural corporate social responsibility report, The JOIN Impact Report. The report outlines the company's responsibility commitments and activities in the areas of people, the environment and business progress.

"Our employees truly make the greatest impact," said Liam Kelly, President and CEO. "We have something special happening at Teleflex beyond our clinically proven medical device products and related services. Our employees' commitment is evident in what they do for their communities, the environment and humanitarian aid. Their engagement in CSR is demonstrating how we are making a difference in the health and quality of people's lives."

Teleflex celebrated its 75th Anniversary in 2018. To commemorate this milestone, approximately 4,000 employees at 50 Teleflex sites across the globe gave back to 76 charities.

Cam Hicks, Vice President of Global Human Resources and Employee Communications shared, "Because of our employees, Teleflex has an outstanding culture and we credit them for bringing our Core Values to life every day."

The JOIN Impact Report, along with related policies, statements and program information, can be accessed through the investor page of the company's website, or directly at www.teleflex.com/csr.
