

Teleflex Signs New Agreement with Novation for Weck Vista™ Access Line

February 5, 2013

LIMERICK, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 5, 2013-- Teleflex Incorporated (NYSE: TFX), a leading global provider of medical devices for critical care and surgery, has announced it has been awarded a new three-year agreement with Novation for its line of Weck Vista Access products. The agreement is effective April 1, 2013 through March 31, 2016.

The Weck Vista Bladeless Laparoscopic Access Ports provide a broad range of sizes and include standard and optical ports that offer both smooth and ridged cannulas, balloon and cone open access ports, reusable obturators for cannula only options and insufflation needles. By offering a complete line of access products, Teleflex provides surgeons who perform minimally invasive procedures access to a broad range of tools that are designed to help increase visualization and stability during procedures.

"Teleflex continues to collaborate with surgeons to offer high-quality products that are specially designed to meet the challenges faced in the operating room," said Jay White, President and General Manager, Surgical Division. "Our ongoing partnership with Novation provides the membership they serve access to this exciting new line of trocars that will bring value both clinically and economically."
