

Teleflex Signs New Agreement With HealthTrust For Port Closure Products

July 29, 2015

WAYNE, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 29, 2015-- Teleflex Incorporated (NYSE: TFX), a leading global provider of medical devices for critical care and surgery, has announced a new group purchasing agreement with HealthTrust covering Teleflex Incorporated's Weck EFX[®] Portfolio of Port Closure products. The agreement becomes effective August 1, 2015.

Weck EFX Port Closure Products from Teleflex are designed to allow surgeons to provide fast, safe closure of laparoscopic port sites with a range of options that suit their procedural and institutional needs. The new Weck[®] EFX Shield[™] Fascial Closure System is the only shielded port closure device, providing enhanced sharps protection for safe, uniform, and consistent fascial closure, and is designed with:

- A unique shielded wing for enhanced sharps protection
- Intuitive wing deployment
- An innovative fascial closure technique with unassisted suture retrieval

"Teleflex has built a comprehensive port-site closure portfolio created around the need for increased patient safety, procedural efficiency and reduced cost," said John Tushar, president and general manager, Teleflex Surgical. "Teleflex's latest innovation, the Weck EFX Shield Fascial Closure System, introduces the industry's first and only shielded device for enhanced patient safety. We are pleased to sign an agreement with HealthTrust and have the opportunity to bring these solutions to its members."
