

ATI Announces Treasury Leadership Transition

06/04/18

PITTSBURGH--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Allegheny Technologies Incorporated (NYSE: ATI) today announced that Scott A. Minder has been named Vice President, Treasurer, and Investor Relations. Mr. Minder succeeds Rose Marie Manley, currently Vice President, Treasurer, who informed the company that she will retire in July 2018. Mr. Minder will continue to report to Patrick J. DeCourcy, Senior Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer. Ms. Manley will serve as Vice President and Special Assistant to the CFO until her retirement to help ensure a smooth transition of ATI's treasury leadership.

"Rose Marie has served as ATI's Treasurer since 2010, capping her 21 year ATI career. Prior to her work at ATI, she worked for Rockwell International. Through her leadership of ATI's treasury function, she has contributed greatly to the Company's success. We want to extend our appreciation and gratitude to Rose Marie for her service to ATI and wish her all the best in her upcoming retirement," said Pat DeCourcy.

Mr. Minder joined ATI as Vice President, Investor Relations in July 2017 from PPG Industries. He holds a Bachelor of Science from GMI Engineering & Management Institute and a MBA from Duke University.
