

VINE ENERGY INC.

FINANCIAL CODE OF ETHICS

Vine Energy Inc. (the “Company”) maintains a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “General Code”) applicable to all directors, officers, employees and agents of the Company and its subsidiaries. The General Code covers ethical conduct, including conflicts of interest and compliance with law. In addition, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the principal accounting officer or controller and all persons performing similar functions for the Company (the “Senior Financial Employees”) are subject to the following additional specific policies:

1. All Senior Financial Employees shall exhibit and promote the highest standards of honesty and ethical business conduct including acting in good faith, responsibly, with due care, competence and diligence, without misrepresenting material facts or allowing their independent judgment to be subordinated. All Senior Financial Employees shall establish, maintain and support policies and procedures that encourage and reward professional integrity in all aspects of the Company's organization and shall ensure an environment exists within the Company which eliminates inhibitions and barriers to responsible behavior, such as coercion, fear of reprisal, or alienation from other employees within the Company.
2. Each Senior Financial Employee shall promptly bring to the attention of the General Counsel or, if no person is serving in such role, the Chief Financial Officer and the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors any information he or she may have concerning (a) significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal controls over financial reporting that could adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information or (b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's financial reporting, disclosures or internal controls.
3. Each Senior Financial Employee shall promptly bring to the attention of the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning any violation of the Company's General Code, including any actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships, involving any management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's financial reporting, disclosures or internal controls.
4. Each Senior Financial Employee shall endeavor to comply with all securities or other laws, rules or regulations of federal, state and local governments and other private and public regulatory authorities that are applicable to the Company and its operations. Each Senior Financial Employee shall promptly bring to the attention of the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning evidence of a material violation of such laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Company and the operation of its business, by the Company or any employee or agent of the Company, or of a violation of the General Code or of this Code of Ethics.

5. The Board of Directors shall determine, or designate appropriate persons to determine, appropriate actions to be taken in the event of violations of the General Code or of this Code of Ethics by a Senior Financial Employee. Such actions shall be reasonably designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote accountability for adherence to the General Code and to this Code of Ethics, and shall include written notices to the individual involved that the Board has determined that there has been a violation, censure by the Board, demotion or re-assignment of the individual involved, suspension with or without employee benefits and termination of the individual's employment or such other action as the Board may determine is appropriate under the circumstances. In determining what action is appropriate in a particular case, the Board of Directors or such designee shall take into account all relevant information, including the nature and severity of the violation, whether the violation was a single occurrence or repeated occurrences, whether the violation appears to have been intentional or inadvertent, whether the individual in question had been advised prior to the violations of the proper course of action and whether or not the individual in question had committed other violations in the past.

6. The Board of Directors or a committee thereof shall consider any request by a person subject to this Code of Ethics for a waiver or any amendment to this Code of Ethics. All such waivers or amendments shall be disclosed promptly as required by law, rule or regulation.
