The AT-A-GLANCE WWP products are designed to give individuals and families the ability to better organize schedules and appointments. The product line includes planners, wall calendars, desk pads and appointment books featuring snapshots and stories of Wounded Warriors and their families.

"We're very excited to have these great planning products available at Staples stores across the country," said Thomas W. Tedford, president, U.S. Office and Consumer Products, ACCO Brands. "By carrying these items, Staples clearly shares our support of Wounded Warrior Project and its vision."

Wounded Warrior Project is a nonprofit organization dedicated to honoring and empowering Wounded Warriors of the U.S. Armed Forces. Its vision is to foster the most successful, well-adjusted generation of wounded service members in our nation's history. WWP receives a portion of the proceeds generated by the new AT-A-GLANCE WWP items through the end of 2014. A minimum of $125,000 has been pledged by AT-A-GLANCE, with the total donation expected to exceed that amount.

"Seeing these fine Wounded Warrior Project planners and calendars on the shelves at Staples is proof-positive that our organization is making great strides in supporting and raising awareness of our Wounded Warriors," said Brea Kratzert, director, Strategic Partnerships, Wounded Warrior Project.
