Management Commentary

David L. Dunkel, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are very pleased that revenue and earnings per share both meaningfully exceeded our range of guidance for the third quarter, driven again by the strong performance of our Technology business. The nearly 30% year-over-year growth rate in our Technology business continues to be among the best in class in our industry. The exceptional growth rate in Q3 of this year follows on market-leading performance in 2020, where we saw only minimal revenue declines in Technology during the height of the pandemic. Strikingly, Technology revenues are up nearly 24% from Q3 2019 levels. Our Technology growth rate is nearly three times greater than the market's rate of growth. It is clear to us that we have been successful at continuing to capture meaningful market share. With our revenues now concentrated approximately 85% in Technology, coupled with a complementary Finance and Accounting ("FA") footprint, we believe we are ideally positioned. There is no other market we would want to be focused in other than the domestic technology staffing and solutions market because it has, in our view, the greatest prospects for strong, sustained, and profitable revenue growth. I am incredibly excited about our strategic position. We have the right team in place to continue to capture additional market share within what we believe will be a robust demand environment for our services."

Joseph J. Liberatore, President, said, "The operating trends we are experiencing in our Technology business have been impressive. Encouragingly, our new assignment starts in Technology were strong in September versus the full quarter and have strengthened further in October. Given the momentum we have carried into the fourth quarter, we expect revenues in our Technology business may grow in the high 20%'s on a year-over-year billing day basis. Additionally, this would represent over 30% organic growth over the fourth quarter 2019 per billing day. We believe that this speaks volumes as to the primarily non-discretionary, mission-critical digitization work we are performing across our blue-chip client portfolio."

Mr. Liberatore continued, "We are making nice progress transitioning our FA business to higher skilled positions, such as analytics and decision-support roles, which is evident in our key performance indicators. We believe we have made tremendous progress advancing Kforce towards a fully integrated, technology enabled hybrid operating model. Our future work environment in this new age we are entering will be what we are referring to as "Office Occasional." In this environment, our people will have maximum flexibility and choice in designing their workdays, rooted in trust and supported by integrated technology aligned with our evolved operating model. We will have a remote first approach but encourage our people to leverage physical office spaces, when desirable, for activities best done through in-person, active collaboration such as training, team building, and client and candidate interactions. I greatly appreciate the trust our clients, consultants and candidates have placed in Kforce. Our teams continue to inspire me on a daily basis as we work together creating something beyond special for tomorrow and into the future to position Kforce as the most desirable destination for top professionals in our industry."

David M. Kelly, Chief Financial Officer, said, "We are very pleased with revenues and profitability both exceeding the high end of our guidance and our expectations of performance in the fourth quarter. Despite the nearly $20 million in deferred payroll taxes under the CARES Act that was repaid in the third quarter, our business continued to generate solid operating cash flows of approximately $23 million. We continued our long-standing emphasis on returning capital to our shareholders through approximately $15 million in share repurchases and more than $5 million in dividends. We ended the quarter with net cash of nearly $16 million and have significant availability under our $200 million Credit Facility, which we believe gives us optimal financial flexibility to continue investing in our business, returning capital to our shareholders and evaluating acquisition opportunities.

"We are pleased to announce that our Board of Directors approved a fourth quarter cash dividend of $0.26 per share to shareholders of record as of the close of business on December 10, 2021, which will be payable on December 24, 2021."

Kforce Inc. Non-GAAP Financial Measures (In Thousands, Except Per Share Amounts) (Unaudited)

In addition to our financial results presented in accordance with GAAP, Kforce may use certain non-GAAP financial measures, which we believe provide useful information to investors in evaluating our core operating performance. The following non-GAAP financial measures presented may not provide information that is directly comparable to that provided by other companies, as other companies may calculate such financial results differently. The Company's non-GAAP financial measures are not measurements of financial performance under GAAP and should not be considered as alternatives to amounts presented in accordance with GAAP. The Company views these non-GAAP financial measures as supplemental and they are not intended to be a substitute for, or superior to, the information provided by GAAP financial results. A reconciliation of the non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures is provided below.

Free Cash Flow

"Free Cash Flow", a non-GAAP financial measure, is defined by Kforce as net cash provided by operating activities determined in accordance with GAAP, less capital expenditures. Management believes this provides an additional way of viewing our liquidity that, when viewed with our GAAP results, provides a more complete understanding of factors and trends affecting our cash flows and is useful information to investors as it provides a measure of the amount of cash generated from the business that can be used for strategic opportunities including investing in our business, making acquisitions, repurchasing common stock or paying dividends. Free Cash Flow is limited, however, because it does not represent the residual cash flow available for discretionary expenditures. Therefore, we believe it is important to view Free Cash Flow as a complement to (but not a replacement of) our Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

Adjusted EBITDA

"Adjusted EBITDA", a non-GAAP financial measure, is defined by Kforce as net income before income from discontinued operations, net of tax, depreciation and amortization, stock-based compensation expense, interest expense, net, income tax expense and loss from equity method investment. Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered a measure of financial performance under GAAP. Items excluded from Adjusted EBITDA are significant components in understanding and assessing our past and future financial performance, and this presentation should not be construed as an inference by us that our future results will be unaffected by those items excluded from Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA is a key measure used by management to assess our operations including our ability to generate cash flows and our ability to repay our debt obligations and management believes it provides a good metric of our core profitability in comparing our performance to our competitors, as well as our performance over different time periods. Consequently, management believes it is useful information to investors. The measure should not be considered in isolation or as an alternative to net income, cash flows or other financial statement information presented in the consolidated financial statements as indicators of financial performance or liquidity. The measure is not determined in accordance with GAAP and is thus susceptible to varying calculations. Also, Adjusted EBITDA, as presented, may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.

In addition, although we excluded amortization of stock-based compensation expense because it is a non-cash expense, we expect to continue to incur stock-based compensation in the future and the associated stock issued may result in an increase in our outstanding shares of stock, which may result in the dilution of our shareholder ownership interest. We suggest that you evaluate these items and the potential risks of excluding such items when analyzing our financial position.
