Power Integrations Bolsters Leadership Team with Addition of Julie Currie as Chief People and Transformation Officer

2025-11-24

SAN JOSE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Power Integrations, Inc. (Nasdaq: POWI) today announced the addition of tech-industry veteran Julie Currie to the company's executive leadership team as chief people and transformation officer. Ms. Currie will lead the company's people strategy including talent acquisition, leadership development, succession planning, organizational design, culture and enterprise transformation.

Julie Currie joins Power Integrations as Chief People and Transformation Officer

Ms. Currie brings over 25 years of global experience leading organizational transformation across the technology sector.

Prior to joining Power Integrations, she served as chief people officer at high-growth companies including GRAIL Biotech and Amplitude, and held senior leadership roles at Sony PlayStation, AMD, and Western Digital. She holds a BA in management and economics from the University of Guelph and has completed executive MBA coursework and a certificate in AI Strategy for Business Transformation at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management.

Commented Jen Lloyd, president and CEO of Power Integrations: "As we hone our strategy to capitalize on growth opportunities in markets like data center, automotive and industrial, it is essential that we transform our organizational capabilities to enable us to scale up and respond quickly to the needs of fast-moving markets. Julie's expertise will be vital to those efforts, and we are excited to welcome her to our leadership team."
