

Power Integrations to Present at Upcoming Investor Conferences

SAN JOSE, Calif.--Feb. 3, 2006--Power Integrations (Nasdaq:POWI - News), the leader in high-voltage analog integrated circuits for power conversion, announced today that John Cobb, the company's chief financial officer, is scheduled to present at the Thomas Weisel Partners Technology Conference on Monday, February 6, 2006 in San Francisco. The presentation is scheduled to take place at the Fairmont Hotel at 3:50 p.m. Pacific time.

The company also announced that its president and CEO, Balu Balakrishnan, is scheduled to present at the NASDAQ U.S. Small Cap conference on Tuesday, February 7, 2006 in London. The presentation is scheduled to take place at the Merrill Lynch Financial Centre at 10:15 a.m. GMT.

Live webcasts of both presentations will be available through the Investor Info section of the Power Integrations website, www.powerint.com. Audio replays of the presentations will also be available on the site following the conclusion of each event.

About Power Integrations

Power Integrations, Inc. is the leading supplier of high-voltage analog integrated circuits used in power conversion. The company's breakthrough integrated-circuit technology enables compact, energy-efficient power supplies in a wide range of electronic products, in both AC-DC and DC-DC applications. The company's EcoSmart[®] energy-efficiency technology, which dramatically reduces energy waste, has saved consumers and businesses around the world more than an estimated $1.4 billion on their electricity bills since its introduction in 1998. For more information, visit the company's Web site at www.powerint.com. For information on global energy-efficiency standards and EcoSmart solutions, visit the Power Integrations Green Room at www.powerint.com/greenroom.