

Diebold Nixdorf And Its Charitable Foundation Support Operation HOPE To Improve Financial Literacy And Inclusion

March 29, 2018

Donations totaling $20,000 follow successful social media campaign supporting company's services launch

NORTH CANTON, Ohio, March 29, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Diebold Nixdorf (NYSE: DBD), a world leader in driving connected commerce, today announced that it, along with the company's charitable foundation, are donating $20,000 to Operation HOPE as a result of the tremendous response to the recent social media campaign announcing Diebold Nixdorf's AllConnect ServicesSM portfolio launch.

For each "like" and "share" of the #BuiltToPower campaign across the company's social media channels, Diebold Nixdorf pledged to donate one U.S. dollar to Operation HOPE, in a joint effort to drive the two organizations' mission to improve financial literacy and inclusion. Given the positive response to this campaign, The Diebold Foundation has decided to match the company's commitment by giving $10,000 of its own funds, bringing the total donation to $20,000.

The charitable funds will be used to launch the first HOPE Inside South Africa pilot and research initiative focused on Entrepreneurial Training in the Gauteng province, the largest urban population in South Africa. According to World Bank's most recent report, 66 percent of sub-Saharan Africans have no relationship with a financial institution.¹ The support of Diebold Nixdorf will enable Operation HOPE to continue empowering the world's underbanked and unbanked populations through financial education, including credit and money management, home ownership preparedness and small business entrepreneurship programs.

"We are grateful for our partnership with Diebold Nixdorf to jointly address financial inclusion in underserved communities," said John Hope Bryant, founder, chairman and CEO of Operation HOPE. "This generous support of the work of HOPE will help expand our HOPE Inside programming across the nation and around the world."

Patty Lang, vice president, chief people officer, Diebold Nixdorf, said, "We are committed to supporting Operation HOPE in empowering underserved communities and driving sustainable development all over the globe. We were thrilled to be a part of this initiative and are thankful to our followers for their support in making this campaign a success."

About Operation HOPE

Since 1992, Operation HOPE has been empowering financial inclusion and "silver rights" with the mission of making free enterprise and capitalism work for the underserved—disrupting poverty for millions of low- and moderate-income families across the nation and around the world. Through the community uplift model, HOPE Inside, the organization has served more than 2.8 million individuals and directed more than $2.7 billion in economic activity into disenfranchised communities—turning check cashing customers into banking customers, renters into homeowners, small business dreamers into small business owners, minimum wage workers into living wage consumers, and uncertain disaster victims into financially empowered disaster survivors.
