

Diebold Nixdorf Names Henderson To Lead Retail Business For Americas Region

January 16, 2017

NORTH CANTON, Ohio, Jan. 16, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Diebold Nixdorf (NYSE: DBD) today announced that Devora Henderson has been named vice president, retail, for the Americas region. In this role, she will focus on growing the company's retail business in the region and manage a portfolio of innovative solutions that will transform the retail experience for consumers. Henderson has extensive experience in leading retail and service organizations, and has demonstrated the ability to increase sales, customer satisfaction and retention, and win competitive deals on a global scale.

DIEBOLD NIXDORF

Prior to joining Diebold Nixdorf, Henderson held multiple leadership roles with Toshiba Global Commerce Solutions and International Business Machines (IBM). She most recently served as vice president, sales, North America, for Toshiba, where she identified and established strategic, global original equipment manufacturer (OEM) alliances to drive incremental revenue growth. Henderson earned a bachelor's degree in management from the University of South Florida and a master's degree from Nova Southeastern University.
