

Diebold Names Virostek To Lead Investor Relations

April 23, 2015

NORTH CANTON, Ohio, April 23, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Diebold, Incorporated (NYSE: DBD) today announced Stephen A. Virostek has joined the company as vice president, investor relations.

DIEBOLD NIXDORF

Virostek will be responsible for incorporating Diebold's strategic vision and transformation objectives across all investor relations and financial communications activities. He will report to John D. Kristoff, vice president and chief communications officer.

Virostek's career includes more than 15 years of investor relations experience at a number of leading technology and services companies. Since 2012, he served as head of investor relations at Computer Sciences Corporation (CSC), a global information technology provider for the U.S. federal government and multi-national corporations. Prior to joining CSC, he directed investor relations activities for the Sprint Nextel Corporation and Nextel Communications, Inc. Virostek received a bachelor's of business administration degree from James Madison University and a master's degree in business administration from The George Washington University.

"Steve's leadership experience with technology companies undergoing significant transformation made him a natural fit for Diebold as we transform to a services-led, software enabled company," said Kristoff. "He will help us continue to improve our disclosure and facilitate open and candid communication with our investors."
