Interest List Now Forming for Sonoma by TRI Pointe Homes

6/1/2009

Irvine, CA - TRI Pointe Homes has announced plans to introduce Sonoma, brand-new single-family detached homes centrally located in the master planned community of Woodbury, Irvine. With approximately 2,350 to 2,622 square feet of living space, Sonoma homes will encompass three to five bedrooms and two and one-half to three baths. Families with children will also appreciate the educational excellence of the highly acclaimed Irvine Unified School District, and students living at Sonoma will attend Irvine High School, which is one of the district's most celebrated schools. Prices are expected to start from the mid $700,000s when sales begin in late 2009. An interest list is now being compiled and prospective buyers may add their names to online.
