TRI Pointe earned this distinction primarily based on survey results measuring employee experience at the company. The award also recognized the employee-friendly benefits that TRI Pointe Group offers, such as competitive medical plans, 401(k) matching, a rich vacation plan, and company paid disability. Employees also enjoy added perks such as paid community service days, tuition reimbursement, company lunches, gym reimbursement, and adoption assistance.

"At TRI Pointe Group, we are not just in the home-building business, we are in the life-changing business. This award is a testament to the passionate culture we have cultivated not only in Orange County with the TRI Pointe Group Home Office and TRI Pointe Homes Southern California Division, but across all six of our regional homebuilding brands over the past few years,” said Doug Bauer, CEO of TRI Pointe Group. “We believe in community in every sense of the word and strive to play the same transformative role in the lives of our team members and their families as they invest in the lives of our new homeowners. TRI Pointe has an engaged, productive team and we are honored by this recognition.”
